General Synod and Summer Conference 2026

The General Synod 2026 of the Reformed Church of Pakistan will convene on May 21–22, 2026, at the Retreat & Renewal Centre, Murree, Pakistan. Please prayerfully prepare for this important gathering and ensure your attendance.

In conjunction with the General Synod, the Summer Conference will be held. The topic is the Doctrine of God. Rev. Arslan Ul Haq and the leadership of the RCofP use these conferences to build up ministers and lay people alike in the great doctrines of the Christian faith. Past conferences have included the Great Commission, the Doctrine of the Trinity, and Christology.

Translation Ministry

Translation of quality Reformed works into Urdu continues to be an important part of the ministry of Rev. Arslan Ul Haq. He has already finished many works such as Planting, Watering, Growing: Planting Confessionally Reformed Churches in the 21st Century, edited by Daniel

R. Hyde and Shane Lems; The Biblical Qualifications for Elders and Deacons (An Exegesis of 1 Timothy 3:2–13), written by Archibald Alexander Allison; and The Form of Presbyterian Government, written in 1645.

Arslan plans to translate a wide variety of works that will instruct pastors and edify the saints.

Training of Ministers

By God's grace, Sutlej Reformed Theological Seminary, a ministry of the Reformed Church of Pakistan, has been equipping pastors and ministry workers since 2021. Our pastors are actively engaged in church planting and shepherding congregations in a challenging ministry context. Due to these ongoing demands, the seminary currently faces a shortage of qualified instructors.

The RCofP is prayerfully seeking passionate men willing to teach Biblical Languages, Biblical Counseling, English, and related subjects. This short-term teaching opportunity of approximately one week can make a lasting contribution to the church in Pakistan.

If you feel led by God to serve alongside us, reach out to Rev. Howard Sloan (Westminster Biblical Missions) for additional information about the Reformed Church of Pakistan. Your willingness to serve can touch lives and strengthen Christ's church in ways that endure for generations.

In Christ's Service,

Howard Sloan
